University of Miami String Academy (UMSA) is a string preparatory program at the Frost School of Music that offers lessons and classes to those interested in studying violin, viola, cello, and double bass. Music theory and chamber music classes are also offered. There are three programs, Strings for Kids (ages 6-12), Strings for Teens (ages 13-18), and Strings for Adults (adults).

12 weeks of instructions are offered during a semester and a final concert will be presented by students in each semester. All classes take place on the Coral Gables campus of the University of Miami. For more information, please see details on our website at www.music.miami.edu/stringacademy.

Please feel free to contact us should you have any further questions. We will be more than happy to assist you. We sincerely hope you join us in the future.
